Bilfinger SE: Michael Bernhardt appointed Member of the Executive Board and Labour Director

The Supervisory Board of Bilfinger SE has appointed Michael Bernhardt, 48, Member of the Executive Board with effect from January 1, 2016. He will assume responsibility for human resources and the function of Labour Director, which had previously been held by Dr. Jochen Keysberg on an interim basis. Michael Bernhardt comes from the former Bayer Material Science AG, currently Covestro AG, where he held the same position.

"We are very pleased that we have managed to attract Michael Bernhardt, an experienced management personality who, in light of the repositioning of Bilfinger, will be able to dedicate all of his energy to the tasks in the area of human resources. Dr. Jochen Keysberg will concentrate on management of the Building and Facility business segment", explains Dr. Eckhard Cordes, Chairman of the Supervisory Board at Bilfinger SE.
